

while I appreciate the intent of "Localism", as I understand it, I am concerned that some valuable services may suffer or even be eliminated as a result of its expansion. I currently listen to K-LOVE radio and would hate to lose that choice. Aside from their non-commercial Contemporary Christian format, I also get much of my news and updates in the Christian community from their broadcast. I am concerned that another, more local, station might not have these interests. I believe that stations like K-LOVE serve the community in an important way, not only by offering programming that is family-friendly, but by the impact they can have on otherwise hopeless lives. Many people are uplifted and emotionally refreshed by the positive message of this broadcast. Thank you for your consideration.
